

Kern County Black Chamber of Commerce

Presents

Friday- November 14, 2008 >>>>

Grant Writing 101

LOCATION: Goodwill Industries-Training Center 18th/Chester-2nd fl- Bakersfield

TIME: 10:00am- 4:00pm COST: $60 Per Person (includes workbook, resource guide, and the Signature Welcome HOME Report Empowerment Tote Package) LUNCH provided by Costco!!!

Class size limited to 20 persons- Register TODAY! Seats fill fast!

Instructor: Deborrah Gilbert-Moretta Economic Development Corporation

Are you committed to serve? Well, millions of grant dollars exist to help deliver the meaningful services of faith, community based and non-profit organizations! Are you getting your share?

Attend this workshop and learn how to:

- ❖ Approach the process of grant writing with the sense of organization and delight
- ❖ Understand the relationships between grant planning, program development and evaluations
- ❖ Write for successful fund development; Manage program resource for results and renewals
- ❖ Communicate your mission needs and strategies for effective outreach
- ❖ Discover hidden community resources often under utilized
- ❖ Reduce barriers to successful grant writing while, avoiding common mistakes applicants make
- ❖ Use the 4 P's of grant writing...and more

Deborrah Gilbert shares years of experiences, business success systems, and resources in seminar presentations that inspire and motivate attendees to achieve their dreams and reach organizational goals. Learn key strategies as Ms Gilbert shares her expertise and tips to attract project and program funding and support.

RSVP by November 7, 2008 Hold your place in class! For more information call 661-326-1529

SPONSORED BY:

Complete and mail with payment to KCBCC PO Box 41376 Bakersfield, CA.93384

Print Name: First _____ Last _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____